4) As the Influenza epidemic was raging most furiously at Bangalore when I left for Pondicherry and most of our Office clerks and servants had been down with it, I had to take a Brahmin servant with me and pay him from my pocket his railway fare and his wages. The 3rd class railway fare from Bangalore to Pondicherry is Rs 4-1-9 and I had to give him 8 Rs for his service during the period of my stay at Pondicherry. This may be accepted as a donation or reward if the Govt may be pleased to think fit.

21.1.19

2 Article 53 of the Service Regulations defines deputation as detachment of an officer on special temporary duty for the performance of which there is no permanent or temporary Cadre appt. Art 56 lays down that no officer may be deputed on special duty without the sanction of Govt. Such a sanction has been accorded in Govt No. G. 1286 3 of 30.12.18 in my case. Art 57 says that an officer deputed on special duty may be allowed to draw pay & salary which but for his deputation he would have continued to draw either as substantive or officiating, and that if the duties involve a decided increase of work & responsibility in comparison with the duties of his regular appt or require change of station the Offr may in addition be allowed to draw a deputation allowance which may not except in special cases with the special sanction of Govt exceed one fifth of Salary or 10 Rs per day whichever is less.

2) Under art 5 deputation allowance does not include reimbursement of cost of travelling an Offr who draws deputation is not thereby debarred from drawing any T/A which would be admissible to him if the duty on which he is deputed were treated as a new permanent appt

4) In view of the decided increase of work & responsibility which any deputation involves, it is a matter for consideration whether the case is not one for special treatment provided for in Art 57 of the Servic Regulations. underlined above - / A copy of the M-S of is put up for [illegible] may be / Reproduction of Clause of 1/5 Sa Carry [illegible]
